Comment. Information in paragraph 1 continues information on the arrival of troops in the south section of Letzling Heath which started on 25 April. [redacted] the shipments observed prior to 28 April involved units of the 7th Gds Tank Div. [redacted] arrival of elements of the 19th Gds Mech Div, the departure of which from Magdeburg had been reported on the same day. [redacted] 2 shipments of units of the 7th Gds Tank Div went from Dessau to Haldensleben on 7 May. [redacted]. The information tends to indicate that some of the trains observed after 3 May carried exclusively tank firing details, which probably belonged to units of the Fourth Gds Mech Army as [redacted], similar shipments had gone to Haldensleben from Eberswalde and Templin on 3 May. Train [redacted] from Templin also carried T-34 tanks [redacted] and 1 truck. [redacted]. According to information in paragraph 3 of the present report, this unit apparently returned on 6 May.
